THE FAIRFIELD FULCHRUM

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY

FRIDAY, JANUARY 9, 1948

VOL. I, No. 7

ROBT. LIDDLE WINS AWARD

After six issues of the Fairfield "Tentative," our newspaper now has its permanent name, THE FAIRFIELD FULCHRUM, presented by Robert Liddle of Section G. Liddle was presented a check of ten dollars yesterday afternoon for his prize-winning suggestion.

"How did you come across the name fulchrum?" we asked the amazed Liddle.

"Fr. Duffy deserves half the credit," he said. "We flipped through a dictionary one afternoon. The word fulchrum struck us as interesting, so I submitted it. Of course I never thought I would win ten dollars!"

Out of the 16 contestants who contributed 37 names, the following attained honorable mention:

Michael Levinsky: "The Fair View,"

"Pacemaker," and "Campus Call."

John Sinanis: "The Cardinal."

Robert Liddle: "The Sound."

Julius Vasas: "Sound Views."

The judges of the contest were Fr. James Walsh, Fr. Robert MacDonnell, and Fr. Arthur MacGillivray.

BASKETBALL GAME

A team to represent the Fairfield freshmen at a charity game is being formed this week. It will be played one week from Sunday for the benefit of the Bridgeport Rehabilitation Fund. This does not mean that this is the start of athletic relations at the University. On the contrary, the team will be formed because of a request to play the charity game.

If you have had experience playing before and would like to join, give your name to Fr. Buck today. Because of the late date and due to the fact that the team is only temporary, only those with experience will be considered.

FR. GREAMER SPEAKS

Rev. James Creamer, lecturer on Economics, is speaking on "Social Sciences in the College and University" this coming Sunday, January 11, on Station WLIZ.

WEENIE ROAST

At a meeting held last Wednesday, plans were made for a weenie roast and a trip to New York - after the exams. Anthony Caseria gave a talk about his experiences in Germany.

Members of the club and anyone who may be interested have been asked to donate any German books they may have to the school "library."

TOURNAMENT

There has been an enthusiastic response to the Mid-Winter Ping-Pong tournament - so much so that the odds are already posted on the bulletin board. Play will begin sometime next week.

ANTHOLOGIZED

Rev. Arthur MacGillivray of the English department has been recently anthologized in two books. A poem, "Madonna of the Dons," appears in a Marian anthology edited by Sister Therese, I Sing of a Maiden (Macmillan); while a sketch, "Tale of the Candlestick-Men" appears in a book of essays and sketches called The Snob and the Saint, edited by Sister Frances Teresa (Mosher).

CARNIVAL DAYS

Plans for the Mid-Winter Carnival Formal, January 17, 8:30-12, at Berchmans Hall, are well under way. Music for the occasion will be provided by Francis Del. Fino's orchestra of Waterbury. This popular group has played at many New England college socials.

The dance committee, under the guidance of Fr. MacDonnell, is headed by Raymond Longden jr. and Donald Swanson. Decorations will appropriately reflect the Carnival theme.

Refreshments will be served during the intermission and at that time the Snow Queen will be crowned. The lucky girl will be given a souvenir of the event.

Hosts and hostesses are:

Lt. Gov. and Mrs. James C. Shannon
Mr. and Mrs. W. Raymond Flicker
Mr. and Mrs. James V. Joy
Mr. and Mrs. J. Gerald Phelan

The last day for purchasing tickets for the dance will be on Monday, January 12, because of the many detailed preparations and expenses which must be made and met. If you want to repeat the good time you had at the last dance, let your intentions be known by purchasing your tickets today - or Monday at the latest.

MAIL BOX

Don't you think it would be a good idea to have a suggestion box? In this way the student body could present its ideas to the student council; this would offer a better representation of the school members.

There must be a limitation, though. All the students must submit their names on the suggestion-slip and only such material would be considered. So, the "humorist" would not have his joke the way he so often had when notices were placed on the bulletin board.

- Jonas J. Meyer.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club got its humble start on Wednesday afternoon. The new director, Mr. Simon Harak of Derby took over after a brief talk by Fr. Langguth and already has the club lined up and ready to begin rehearsals.

Mr. Harak is a very competent director, having studied widely, and comes to the club with previous directing-experience.

The club already has 32 members and ten more are signed up. If you want to join, you must appear at the next meeting.

A concert program is under consideration. Members of the club include:

First Tenor:
