

---

(1947) The Tentative

Student Newspapers

---

11-14-1947

Tentative - Vol. 01, No. 02 - November 14, 1947

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.fairfield.edu/archives-tentative>

---

Recommended Citation

"Tentative - Vol. 01, No. 02 - November 14, 1947" (1947). (1947) The Tentative. 2.
<https://digitalcommons.fairfield.edu/archives-tentative/2>

This item has been accepted for inclusion in DigitalCommons@Fairfield by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Fairfield. It is brought to you by DigitalCommons@Fairfield with permission from the rights-holder(s) and is protected by copyright and/or related rights. You are free to use this item in any way that is permitted by the copyright and related rights legislation that applies to your use. For other uses, you need to obtain permission from the rights-holder(s) directly, unless additional rights are indicated by a Creative Commons license in the record and/or on the work itself. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@fairfield.edu.

THE FAIRFIELD COLLEGE

TENTATIVE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1947

Vol. I, No. 2

*** INTERESTED IN JO ***

*** RHYTHM SECTION ***

You may be interested in winning ten dollars. We are interested in finding a permanent name for the "Tentative," which is as tentative as its name implies. You come forth with the winning name, and we shall barter money for an idea.

Glory comes to few men. YOU, as the advertisements say, may be the man who will live forever in the history of Fairfield College as the originator of the BLANK - such a distinctive, catchy, appropriate name for our college newspaper.

Write your suggestion on one side of the paper, your own name on the other side, enclose in a sealed envelope, and submit to Fr. MacGillivray.

The Saturday evening before Thanksgiving, November 22nd, is a closed date for the socially minded members of the freshman class. It is the premiere of social functions in the short history of Fairfield College.

Our gracious hosts and hostesses include Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cody, Mr. and Mrs. Fella Gintoff, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rice, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Stuart.

Mr. Rice is President of the Bel-larmine Guild; Mr. Cody and Mr. Stuart are well known instructors in the college department; while Mr. Gintoff teaches in the Preparatory School.

The music will be supplied by Bob Weller's orchestra, and not by Gene Hull and the boys, erroneously reported in last week's issue. While the refreshments are a secret, we understand they are something really special!

Painting operations in the auditorium are being speeded up, zzzzzzzzzzzz, just for the occasion.

*** FRENCH CLUB ***

Meetings of the French Club will be on every other Tuesday. As a supplement to conversation and writing, there will be some movies dealing with the French people, their customs and culture. The first of these films will concern post-war France.

*** SPORTS ROUNDUP ***

*** GERMAN CLUB ***

The club officers of the German Club who were elected on Monday, November 10, are:

President: Michael Levinsky
Vice President: William McKee
Secretary: Thomas McCalla

Some of the plans for the coming year include German films, some time during December, and a presentation by members of the club of scenes from Wilhelm Tell, at the close of the year.

Mainly the club is a social one, with a study of German customs, arts, included.

The intramural football league ends officially next Wednesday. The play-off for the championship will be on Wednesday afternoon between Sections E and F. It should be a close contest, since each has one win over the other.

Basketball competition will begin next week. Games will be played on the macadam square outside the auditorium. This competition will not be intramural, but rather privately organized teams will vie for the school championship. If you know four other stars, submit their names and the name of your team to Mr. Buck, and a schedule will be organized to accommodate you.

Volunteers to dig post holes tomorrow; meeting of enthusiasts on Monday!