
(1947) The Tentative

Student Newspapers

12-5-1947

Tentative - Vol. 01, No. 04 - December 5, 1947

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.fairfield.edu/archives-tentative>

Recommended Citation

"Tentative - Vol. 01, No. 04 - December 5, 1947" (1947). (1947) The Tentative. 4.
<https://digitalcommons.fairfield.edu/archives-tentative/4>

This item has been accepted for inclusion in DigitalCommons@Fairfield by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Fairfield. It is brought to you by DigitalCommons@Fairfield with permission from the rights-holder(s) and is protected by copyright and/or related rights. You are free to use this item in any way that is permitted by the copyright and related rights legislation that applies to your use. For other uses, you need to obtain permission from the rights-holder(s) directly, unless additional rights are indicated by a Creative Commons license in the record and/or on the work itself. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@fairfield.edu.

THE FAIRFIELD COLLEGE

"TENTATIVE"

FRIDAY? DECEMBER 5, 1947

VOL. I, No. 4

 WITHOUT A NAME ***

Here I am four weeks old and I still do not have a "head". How about giving those few who have already suggested names some competition?

All you need do to enter the contest is write your suggestion on a piece of paper along with your name (everybody has a name), put the paper in an envelope and present the envelope to Father Mac-Gillivray.

The last day before Christmas vacation has been set as the deadline for accepting suggestions.

 COMPLAINT DEPARTMENT ***

All students should refrain from crossing through the property on the corner of Jennings Road and Parkwood Road. The owners of the property have complained to the Police Department, and the order will be enforced.

 O PROMISE ME ! ***

Wedding bells rang for Tom O'Connor of Section D on Thanksgiving Day. Despite all he has learned in Mr. Donnarumma's history class, Tom insisted that he try it for himself, feeling that experience is the best teacher. Could the contentment of such married men as Frank Prior and Jooly Vasas have influenced him? Congratulations, Tom, and best wishes for your happiness.

 PLUG ***

When the odor of drying paint in the auditorium was still quite strong just a couple of days before the dance, one F. Lambert suggested that the committee try a bottle of Air Wick. Are they pushing said product at WNAB now, Frank?

 HEADLINES ***

Watch next Sunday's Bridgeport Herald for Palestine's and Fairfield's John Reynaud.

 ALERT TO VETS ***

Reliable (?) sources inform us that Mr. Pavilan, the Vets' admin. representative, will be in the VA office on next Wednesday from ten thirty till twelve-thirty.

All Vets who have not yet received their subsistence checks are urged to bring with them the letters which they received from Hartford...signifying that their allotment claims have been accepted.

 CHRISTMAS DANCE ***

The dance on November 22nd was a big success. We are all looking forward to another, say, before the Christmas holidays? Are you listening, Student Council?

 UNDER MARY'S MANTLE ***

Next Monday's holiday should make all of us thoughtful of peace. The Feast of the Immaculate Conception is very important in the Church's calendar. In the world's calendar it marks the sixth anniversary of the declaration of war against Germany and Japan.

Today all of us are concerned with peace. Fairfield University, together with other Catholic colleges throughout the country, will send delegates to the National Catholic Students Peace Conference at Holy Cross College. It is significant that such a meeting should be held on this Feast since one of Our Lady's titles is Queen of Peace.

The United States, consecrated to the Immaculate Conception, should realize that it is only through a return to God and His Mother that peace will be insured. Last year, in his broadcast to American school children, Pope Pius reminded us that security of peace rested with the youth of America. Under Mary's mantle, there can be peace in our time.

 ECCLESIASTICAL NOTE ***

Q: What is Holy Viaticum?
A: That's where the Pope lives, isn't it, Father?