1971-1972

Brecht October 14-15-16-21-22-23

MOTHER COURAGE

The timeless masterpiece from one of the century's most influential writers.

Dealing with man's struggle to survive in the face of overwhelming outside forces, it is a blistering play that is funny yet sad, warm yet unsentimental.

Masterhoff, Bock & Harnick Opening in December

SHE LOVES ME

For the holiday season, a warm, tuneful, romantic, altogether enchanting musical. Set in Europe in the 1930's, it is filled with all the quaint charm and innocence so delightfully characteristic of the Old World.

Ibsen Opening in February

HEDDA GABLER

A particularly timely revival of one of the most penetrating and sardonic character studies ever written. This story of a frustrated and misunderstood woman retains its great significance and insight — as fresh today as when first written by the playwright who "started it all" where 20th century drama is concerned.

Weiss Opening in April

MARAT / SADE

The shocking play by the brilliant German playwright that has stunned and seared audiences throughout Europe and America. The raw, brutal action swirls around society's confrontations with revolution.
