Mitchell-Ruff Duo A Touch of Jazz Class

Formed in 1955, this famous duo has stayed together for thirty years. They have performed with such legendary jazzmen as Dizzy Gillespie and Lionel Hampton, and starred with the Boston Pops Orchestra.

They took the Soviet Union by storm when they introduced American jazz at the Moscow Jazz Festival in 1959. This success story was recounted in major magazines and in the book Willie and Dwiki.

In 1981 these two ambassadors of jazz introduced their special brand of American culture to China in a tour that duplicated the excitement in the Soviet Union.

Their program at Fairfield University will be spontaneous selections from a repertoire that delights all lovers of jazz.
