Now celebrating its successful first decade, the Center for Judaic Studies at Fairfield University was created through a generous gift made by Carl and Dorothy Bennett. The Department of Judaic Studies offers an interdisciplinary minor that incorporates theological, historical, and cultural perspectives on Judaism and its changing role over the past 4,000 years. The Center for Judaic Studies also boasts an impressive array of scholars from a variety of disciplines, which makes the minor in Judaic Studies an encompassing program of study. Contact the Center at (203) 254-4000, ext. 2066 for more information.
